Welcome and Thanks

Heartland Senior Services would like to extend a warm welcome to the new members of Heartland's Foundation Board, who were elected at the September meeting. The new members include:

- Verne Bates. Verne and his wife Kathy live in Ames. He works as a trust officer at U. S. Bank, where he has been employed for 29 years. Verne has been very involved in the Octagon Center for the Arts, having served as a board member and also chairman of the Endowment Committee. He is also involved in Ames Noon Kiwanis. Verne attended Drake University.
- Eldon Boswell. Eldon and his wife Marilyn live in Nevada. Eldon is now retired; he worked for the Federal Land Bank and also in farm real estate. He attended ISU and earned a B.S. in Agriculture. His many activities include the Farm Bureau, Rotary, and Stephen Ministry. He is a Story County Soil and Water Commissioner and loves to travel. And yes, he's related to that other well-known Boswell (Congressman Leonard).
- Kay Munsen. Kay and her husband Richard live in Story City. She is a retired Food and Nutrition Specialist with the Iowa State Cooperative Extension. Kay is also a member of Questers and PEO. She enjoys playing in a string quartet at various events, including weddings. She is not new to Heartland, having served previously on Heartland's Board of Directors and also on the Foundation Board. Kay earned her B. S. and M.S. from Iowa State University.

- Robert (Bob) Vohs. Bob and his wife Lois live in Ames. He earned his B.S. and M.S. from Iowa State; his field of study was Animal Science. Before retiring, Bob worked with feed manufactures in the Midwest at the Feed Specialties Company in Des Moines. Bob has been active in many organizations, including the Ames Jaycees and Rotary Club. He served as president of the Iowa Grain and Feed Association and the National Feed Association. He enjoys, golf and other sports, travel, and spending time with his family.

We would also like to extend a sincere thank you to two dedicated Foundation Board members, who completed their terms this month: Jerry Sell and Gordon Bivens.

Jerry Sell has been serving as treasurer for the Foundation Board. He first joined Heartland as a volunteer in Adult Day Care in 1997. Jerry's wife, JoAnn, is also an HSS volunteer.

Gordon Bivens has been the secretary for the Foundation Board. He previously served on the Heartland Board of Directors.

Welcome and thanks! ♥

Updates from Heartland:

- The Ninth Annual Variety Show was a great success, drawing record crowds and enthusiastic reviews. Our thanks to the sponsors: Brighton Park Apartments, Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, all our advertisers and Copyworks. Thanks also to the volunteers and staff for all the support and work that made this show so successful.
- Adult Day Services Week will be held September 22-26 at HSS. There will be activities at Heartland during the week and Adult Day Care will have an open house all week. Please stop by and see what's new!
